appointment as Independent and Non-Executive Director, subject to provisions of the applicable law including the Act, through recommendation of the Board or any of its Committees appointed in this regard and approval of the shareholders in their general meeting, for a further term as approved, under largely the same terms and conditions.

2. Expectation of the Board from you as an Independent and Non-Executive Director

As an Independent and Non-Executive Director, we are certain that you will bring objectivity and independence of view to the Board's discussions and to help provide the Board with effective leadership in relation to the Company's strategy, performance and risk management as well as ensuring high standards of financial integrity and corporate governance.

We will look forward to you attending the meetings of the Board, its Committees to which you may be appointed as a member, as also shareholders meetings. The notice of the meeting shall specify the place of the meeting and it is expected that the meeting shall also have the facility to participate through audio visual means, subject to provisions of the applicable law including the Act. The Board would seek your involvement in the business meetings, introduction and engagement with prospective customers, employees, advisors and other such parties. In addition to such attendances, you are expected to devote appropriate preparation time ahead of each meeting.

3. Committees of the Board

The Board may also invite you for being appointed on one or more Committees of the Board. Your appointment on such Committee(s) will be subject to the applicable laws and regulations including the Act.

4. Fiduciary Duties

Your role and duties will be those normally required of an Independent and Non-Executive Director under the Companies Act, 2013, relevant SEBI Regulations, and the articles of association of the Company. There are certain duties prescribed for all Directors, both Executive and Non-Executive, which are fiduciary in nature and inter alia include the following:

- (i) You shall act in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association;
- (ii) You shall act diligently and in good faith in order to promote the objects of the Company for the benefit of its members as a whole and in the best interest of the Company;
- (iii) You shall not involve yourself in a situation in which you may have a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interest of the Company;

- (iv) You shall not achieve or attempt to achieve any undue gain or advantage either to yourself or to your relatives, partners or associates;
- (v) You shall not assign your office as Director and any assignments so made shall be void.

5. Access to Company Information and Independent Advice

You are authorized to seek any information, where necessary, which directors may require from any employee of the Company. Where appropriate, a formal request may be made to the Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Company Secretary or any of the business / functional heads of the Company, to facilitate the process.

6. Training and Development

You will be provided with necessary documents / brochures, reports and internal policies to enable you to familiarize with the Company's procedures and practices. You may also be invited to attend ongoing training and familiarization sessions for Directors.

Periodic presentations will be made at the Board and Board Committee meetings, on business and performance updates of the Company, business strategy and risks involved.

7. Evaluation Process

The performance of individual directors shall be done by the entire Board, excluding the director being evaluated, on an annual basis.

8. Conflict of Interest

It has been noted and acknowledged by us that you may have business interests other than those of the Company. As a condition to your appointment and pursuant to the provisions of the Act, you are required to declare any such directorships, appointments and interests to the Board in writing in the prescribed form (Form MBP-1), from time to time, in future.

In the event that your circumstances seem likely to change and might give rise to a conflict of interest, or when applicable, circumstances that might lead the Board to revise its judgement that you are independent, this should be disclosed to both the Chairman and the Company Secretary.

9. Confidentiality

You agree that, both during and after the term of your appointment, you will not use for your own, or for another's benefit, or disclose or permit the disclosure of any confidential information relating to the Company, subsidiary or any group or associate companies of the Company, which you may acquire by virtue of your position as an independent director, including without limitation, any information about the deliberations of the Board. The restriction shall cease to apply to any confidential information which may (other than by reason of the director's breach of this term), become available to the public generally.

10. Powers and the Company's Responsibilities

You shall not be involved in the day-to-day management or conduct of the Company. You shall not be named in any correspondence, applications, licenses, approvals, compliance reports or otherwise as the person in charge of or responsible for the operations of the Company (including without limitation as "officer who is in default" and "occupiers" or "employers") or compliance by the Company of any laws or licenses or as an "occupier" or an "officer who is in default". The Company shall assert such position in any notice, reply, litigation or other proceedings in which any liability is sought to be attached to you.

11. Liabilities

As per Section 149(12) of the Act, you shall be held liable only in respect of such acts of omission or commission by a company which had occurred with your knowledge, attributable through Board processes, and with your consent or connivance or where you had not acted diligently.

The Company shall reimburse directors for any legal expenses incurred in respect of those liabilities that the director may incur as a director of the Company, provided that there is no fraud or misrepresentation on the director's part, except that to the extent that any claim under the insurance is invoked, any such expenses shall be paid to the Director under the terms of the Insurance.

12. Indemnity

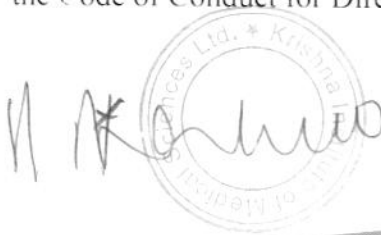

You are granted an indemnity from the Company in respect of liabilities incurred as a result of your office, to the extent permitted by law including the Act.

13. Provision for Directors and Officers Insurance, if any

The Company has a Directors and Officers Insurance Policy in place, which shall also be extended to you as an Independent and Non-Executive Director. The details of the same shall be shared with you separately.

14. Code of Conduct

During the tenure of your appointment, we trust that you will comply with provisions of the Code of Conduct for Directors proposed to be adopted by the Board.
